BUNKERHOF AND MEDARY.—Sam Medary misses no opportunity of slandering Hon. Jacob Brinkerhoff, and if an opportunity does not offer, he makes one, and then lets fly his poisoned arrows of malignity. The pretext for this is that Brinkerhoff is a Know Nothing; at least Sam says so, although that don't make it so. Anyhow this is the pretext, but the real cause is carefully kept from the public eye, and that is two or three years ago Brinkerhoff let out the fact that Medary once proposed to him, whilst the State was in the hands of the Democracy, that Ohio should institute Mississippi and reprobate her State debt. This revelation was made at a meeting in Ashland county, and so incensed Medary, that he swore vengeance and is now trying to keep his oath. This fact should be borne in mind that Samuel Medary once proposed to repudiate the State debt, and is now slandering the man who had the honesty to administer a scathing rebuke, and make his vile purpose known.—Mr. Gideon Sentinel.

THE FOURTH OF JULY IN LONDON.—On the 4th of July last, Mr. George Peabody gave his customary grand entertainment to his fellow citizens sojourning in London. About one hundred and eighty were present, among whom were Millard Fillmore, late President of the United States, and several other distinguished Americans. The dinner was given at Will's Rooms & passed off to the great gratification of all the guests. At one end of the hall stood the bust of Washington, with that of the Queen on the right, and Prince Albert on the left. Over these, blended gracefully the flags of Great Britain and America, which were surmounted by a wreath of laurels. At the other end there stood on a pedestal the Eagle of America, bearing the shield and motto of the nation, and surrounded by the flags of the two nations, entwined from a garland of flowers, and forming a drapery. Specimens were made by Mr. Quincy of Boston, Mr. Hill, more, Mr. Warren of Bunker Hill, and the United States Consul at Southampton. To the toast proposed by Mr. Peabody, "Perpetual Friendship and Amity between the people of England and the United States," Sir Emerson Tennent responded, in a very happy manner, reiterating with a hearty good will, a sentiment of the toast.—Cour. & Eng.

A "VETERAN" WHEEL.—The United States Artillery company now in Washington, is, as well known, of that description of forces which did such marked and wonderful execution during the Mexican campaign. The "fifth wheel" of one of the carriages contains the following inscriptions painted around the rim: Palo Alto, May 3, 1846; Rosala de la Palma, May 9, 1846; Monterey, 21st 22d and 23d of September, 1846; Vera Cruz, March 9, 1847; Cerro Gordo, April 18, 1847; Churubusco, August 20, 1847; Molino del Rey, September 8, 1847; Chapultepec, September 12th and 13th, 1847; Garcia San Cosme, September 13th and 14th, 1847; City of Mexico; Duncan. It is a wheel of the efficient battery of the gallant commander. The mark of a bullet is on one of the spokes, and the hub is yet fit for service. The wheel is of course highly appreciated as a relic of the brilliant past.

NEW INVENTION.—An exhibition of new inventions was recently opened in London under the patronage of a scientific society. Among the most curious discoveries may be named a leather cement, so strong and adhesive that boots and shoes are made with it in which not a single stitch is seen or required, and the process of mending a simple that every man may be, if not his own boot-maker, at all events his own boot-maker.

A PROUD REVOLUTIONARY SOLDIER.—Louis Sanders Noble, a soldier in the Revolution, and a trooper in Marion's legion, died on the 19th of April, in Clinton county, Georgia, at the advanced age of 104 years. He preserved to the last a hat worn by him in battle, and pierced by nineteen bullets. He never would apply for nor except any pension.

M'le Rachel is to receive, it is said, for playing two hundred nights in America, $25,000, besides all the traveling expenses of herself and her suite to be paid, all the salaries of her chambermaids, and she is to have a carriage and the requisite servants always at her disposal.

THE BOSTON MEDICAL AND SURGICAL JOURNAL.—The Boston Medical and Surgical Journal relates the case of a child three years old, in that city, who was lost alone by its parents, for a short time, when it improved the opportunity of imitating their mode of medication, by resorting to the pill box, and the child actually took eleven pills without injury.

HELD TO BAIL.—Six of the Turners held to bail to day, to sum of one thousand each, to answer a charge of riot, and aiding and abetting in the murder of their son.

COMMITTED.—William E. Jocelyn was committed to jail to day, to answer a charge of being concerned in a murder at the El Dorado house in August last.

INCENDIARIES.—The town of Xenia is infested with a gang of incendiaries. Five fires within the last six weeks have occurred, but as yet the citizens have been unable to detect the scoundrels.

A DISTINGUISHED K. N.—GOVERNOR FOOTE.—Formerly of Mississippi, has turned Know Nothing, in California. He says that all the old issues, Whig and Democratic, were dead and abandoned and it was time to form a new party.

ESCAPED.—One of the prisoners of the Ohio Penitentiary escaped yesterday from the custody of an officer, and he has not yet been retaken. Seventy-five dollars reward has been offered for his apprehension.

STEAM FIRE ENGINE.—The Dayton papers are advocating the policy of purchasing a Steam Fire Engine for the use of the city.

The intemperate man never prospers.

THE SPIRIT OF THE LORD'S PRAYER.—The spirit of the Lord's Prayer is beautiful. That form of petition breathes a pure spirit.—Father.

A CATHOLIC SPIRIT.—Our Father.

A REVERENT SPIRIT.—Hallowed be thy name!

A MISSIONARY SPIRIT.—Thy kingdom come.

A OBEDIENT SPIRIT.—They will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

A DEPENDENT SPIRIT.—Give us this day our daily bread.

A FORGIVING SPIRIT.—And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us.

A CAUTIOUS SPIRIT.—Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

A CONFIDENTIAL AND ADORING SPIRIT.—For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

THE WAY THEY KILL DOGS IS NEW.

—The animals are put into a box partially filled with water, when a sort of barred covering is shut down, and a water hydrant is opened upon them, drowning the victims very speedily.

WHAT IS YOUR HUSBAND, DEAR?—asked one lady of another. "O, he is in a very bad state," was the reply. "And pray what kind of a state is he in?" persisted the other.

IN STATE PRISON.

LAGER BEER.—There is manufactured in New York, and imported into it, a number of millions of gallons of Lager Beer.

RATTLESNAKES.—A man caught and barreled thirty-six rattlesnakes the other day, at a place called Battlesnake, Pike county, Pa.

DOES THIS RAZOR TAKE HOLD WELL?—inquired a barber of a man who was undergoing the operation of shaving one Saturday night.

"Yes," was the reply. "It takes hold fair, but it don't let go worth a cent."

WELL SAMBU.—I come over this morning to borrow a little hog-tasher—I put the old sow in the pen after next—and I want to kill her week after last—and don't you come over and I will pay you all you owe me.

MRS. SUZIE, my pa wants to know, if he mayn't lend himself to your axe a little while. He had alders rather lend than borrow.

BRAIDLER'S.—Is snuff injurious to de brain? "Oh, no, cuff, for nobody but has my brains over takes snuff."

WHAT MOST RESEMBLES A HORSE SHOE; why a mares shoe, of course.
